6. Here is your confirmation of payment.

Pay Pal will also email you a receipt of payment to the email that you submitted when paying.

The image shows a screenshot of a PayPal payment confirmation page. On the left, a grey sidebar contains the text "You just made a payment of" followed by a green-bordered box containing "The amount you paid will display here." Below this is a "Print receipt" link with a white arrow pointing left. Further down are sections for "Paid to" (with a purple-bordered box containing "Email will display here.") and "Ship to" (with an orange-bordered box containing "The address will display here."). At the bottom of the sidebar, "United States" is visible. The main content area is titled "Thanks for your order" and features a green checkmark icon and the text "Debra, you just completed your payment." Below this, it says "Your receipt number for this payment is:" followed by a blue-bordered box containing "Your receipt number will display here." The text continues: "We'll send a confirmation email to debra@adexcellence.net. This transaction will appear on your statement as PayPal *DEBRA." A link for "reset it" is provided for forgotten passwords. At the bottom right of the main content area, it says "Payments processed by PayPal" with the PayPal logo. A blue-bordered box at the bottom of the page contains the text "Your name and confirmation number will display here." with a blue arrow pointing up towards the "reset it" link.
